11 Rectory

The style of the Catholic rectory and the school house across from it is a bit out of the ordinary. The rectory was built in 1845 where a medieval building preceded it. As such, it was built according to the fashion of the time as a square sandstone building with a strictly structured façade in the late neo-classical style, including the arched windows.

Back to "10 Beneficiary Spital (Pfründnerhospital)" | Forward to "12 Chapel of Mary (Marienkapelle)"