

Carnival on market square

„Uraha helau!“ Carnival revelry on Shrove Tuesday, February 16th, starting at 1:30 p.m. on market square. With a parade through the town, the Spielmannszug (marching band) of the FFW (volunteer fire department) Herzogenaurach invites all citizens to join the bustle on market square.

Please find current information on the realization of the event here.

The musical entertainment then continues with performances on market square. The Herzogenaurach carnival club gives a performance and also invites the guests to dance together.

The catering is provided for by the FFW and representatives of the town administration give sweet surprises to the children.
