

Herzogenaurach Christmas market

The scent of mulled wine and Christmas lights everywhere, gingerbread men and Christmas tree decorations – the local Christmas market makes you feel all kinds of pre Christmas feelings. The next Christmas market is planned from December 1st to 4th, 2022. We keep you informed if this event is taking place or not, due to the Corona situation.

Beautifully decorated stalls, that sell Christmassy presents and things which will light up your house with the Christmas spirit, can be found in the city centre of Herzogenaurach on the second weekend of December along with many people searching for that special Christmas feeling/something. Be curious!
