Apprenticeship exchange

Find your dream job! The Erlangen-Höchstadt district training exchange is the meeting place for young people looking for the right career. Save the date: The next training exchange will take place on April 25, 2026.

Advice, information, open training positions: The training exchange is the platform for teenagers and young adults to find out about a wide range of training occupations and make contact with companies, institutions and vocational schools that offer training. Anyone looking for a training place or an internship or interested in a dual study program can get in touch there.
