PROGRAM 24th SEPTEMBER

Today is already the last day of the hin&herzo culture festival. But of course the program is no less surprising. For families we have three events in the culture pavilion.

READING FOR CHILDREN: »THE MAGIC TREE HOUSE«

©Loewe

Have you been on a journey with the magic tree house before? If you would like to, you can wear a costume when visiting the reading with Stephan Bach to take a real deep dive into the world of "The Haunted Castle"! The actor will bring to life the story from the popular novel series by Mary Pope Osborne with his playful one-hour reading for preschool and elementary school kids. Join him on a journey through time and space and visit the ghost children at the haunted castle.

CHILDREN THEATER: »THE BUTTERFLY IN THE TOASTER«

©Marion Stephan

You would like to be the one who decides what happens next? This is your chance to do so and to decide what happens on stage! What does the butterfly do in the toaster? And what's going on in the tin can? Sing along, dance, be creative: Your ideas and a suitcase are the ingredients for this performance. The improvisation and join-in theater by Thomas Herr makes the little spectators of four years or older part of the activities on stage. Therefore every performance is a unique experience!

This reading based on the story by Stephen Davies makes history come alive: The two boys Jimmy and Omar search every corner of the famous ocean liner Titanic to rescue their families and their friend Beryl. CABARET: »ZUKUNST«

©Enrico Meyer

Clownish, bizarre and abstruse: This is about future - sorry - about future and arts. And it's going to be seriously funny! The winners of the German Cabaret Award 2022 present their artfully perfected nonsense. Since 2001, Sebastian Rüger and Frank Smilgies have performed on stage or in the TV show “Die Anstalt” as Ulan and Bator. And their colorful hats are by far not the funniest things about them. Cabaret from Absurdistan that makes us all hope the best for the future!
