Weekly market in Herzogenaurach

Fresh fish, juicy fruit and vegetables, delicious baked goods: every Wednesday and Saturday morning from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. there is a weekly market on the main street in the town center.

The weekly market has now become a popular meeting place during everyday stress: In addition to the daily fresh local and regional products that you can buy here, there are always friendly conversations.

Wednesday of the weekly market

Fish specialties

Diverse selection, high quality and freshness: Anita Reichelmann not only delivers fresh fish but is also known for her detailed advice and excellent recipe service.

Further information

Cheese specialties

Cheese connoisseurs can choose from around 80 types of cheese at Manfred Hieke: He offers exquisite cheese from the Bavarian Alps, Austria, Switzerland, France and South Tyrol.

Bakery products

“I bake, therefore I am” - according to this motto, you can get fresh baked goods from Arnd Erbel - without baking yeast, only baked from sourdough. You can also buy sweets here.

Further information

Fruit and vegetables

The Glasauer family from Herzogenaurach offers a diverse selection of fruits and vegetables, some of which they source from Knoblauchsland. There are also products from the Thomas Hellmuth honey factory at the stand.

Fruit

Local fruit and berries are available at Mr. Siebenhaar's stand from Franconian Switzerland. What's special are the apples, which are suitable for allergy sufferers.

Honey and more

Dieter Poschner from Schornweisach now brings honey (rapeseed honey), beeswax candles, beeswax cloths and organic eggs and potatoes from the Nickel Hof to the Herzogenaurach weekly market every Wednesday.

Herzogenaurach beer

From November 29th to December 20th, Mathias Hoehn and his beer factory can also be found at the weekly market on Wednesdays. He sells his hand-brewed beer and also offers samples.
