After-school care facilities

After-school care facilities are facilities which your school-aged children (6 - 14 years old) can attend for regular education and in which educational professionals take care of your children. The focus mainly is on supervising and assisting with homeworks and on recreational activities. Carl-Platz-Schule, Edergasse (CPS), Cunz-Reyther-Schule Niederndorf (CRS) and the private elementary school Liebfrauenhaus (LFH) offer after-school care facilities. Opening hours vary according to school. The children will get lunch every day and the educational staff will assist them with their homework. The educational professionals are also responsible for the daily programme which certainly focuses on the children's needs.

Supporting organisations of Herzogenaurach's after-school care facilities are the catholic church St. Magdalena (CPS), the catholic church St. Josef (CRS and the Stiftung Seraphisches Liebeswerk (LFH). You can apply directly at the respective facility. All supporting organisations offer holiday day care, as well.
