

You are here:HomeLivingPublic libraryMedia offered by the public library

Media offered by the public library

The public library of Herzogenaurach possesses about 24,000 pieces of media offered for loan; the entire range of media is searchable via the WebOPAC. The range of offered media is constantly being updated. Every year, more than 2,000 new publications are purchased.

The range of books includes about 18,000 titles like novels, picture books, books for reading beginners, books for children and teenagers, comic books and non-fiction books. The foreign-language books are mainly in English, but also French, Italian, Spanish, Turkish, Russian, Arabian and Latin.

The media library offers CDs and cassettes with audio books for children and adults, as well as classic and modern music, language courses, DVD movies, board games, Tiptoi books, console games (PS4, WiiU, Switch and 3DS) and tonies.

Also, lokal newspapers and more than 40 magazine subscriptions for all fields of interests can be found here. The current editions are available for reading at the library; previous editions are also offered for loan.

Onleihe (online loan services) and Freegal Music

With a valid reader pass, digital media can be downloaded at home at any time. The Franken-Onleihe-portal offers more than 60,000 e-books, e-audios, e-magazines and e-papers and Freegal Music over 16 Mio. songs, videos and audio books.

Print page

Seite speichern