Parking taxes

In downtown Herzogenaurach, car parking is free for the first 30 minutes. Every additional 30 minutes cost 0.50 EUR each; maximum parking time generally is two and a half hours (except for parking spaces along the main street and the market square: only 1 hour max.). Every parking ticket purchased automatically includes the first 30 free minutes. For parking times of 30 minutes or less, the ticket machines offer a separate button for free parking tickets.

At the main parking area "An der Schütt", the first 30 minutes are also free, and every additional 30 minutes cost 0.40 EUR. This parking area also offers a longer maximum parking time and even permanent parking tickets.

Mobile phone parking service

There also is the possibility of a cashless parking ticket purchase via your mobile phone, either with or without registration, by sending an SMS or using the smartphone App TraviPay. In Herzogenaurach, this mobile phone parking service is offered at the chargeable public main parking area "An der Schütt" and the parking lane "An der Schütt", the "Rathaus" parking area and the "Vereinshaus" parking area. An additional service fee will incur when using the comfortable "mobile phone parking service".

Additionally, there also is one ticket machine accepting EC cards at the main parking area "An der Schütt".

Caravan parking spaces

12 caravan parking spaces with electric hook-up and "Holiday Clean" are available directly at the visitor parking area of the Atlantis fun and adventure pool. These parking spaces are within walking distance of the town center.

The fee for one caravan parking space is 6.00 EUR per day (24 hours), including a 2.00 EUR voucher for the indoor pool or the Atlantis restaurant. Parking tickets are available at the register of the Atlantis indoor pool. The caravan parking area is open all year round. Registration in advance is not required.
